MEDIA GUIDE CREDITS

The 2008 TCU spring football media guide is a publication of the Horned Frog athletics media relations office. Guide was written and edited by Mark Cohen with assistance from Blake Enis. Design and layout was provided by Andy Anderson with assistance from Drew Myers. Cover design was provided by Grant Hawkins Design. Interior photography provided by Vladimir Cherry and Scott Bjornlie.

JUST TCU, THANK YOU

Though the Department of Intercollegiate Athletics is a proud and integral part of Texas Christian University, it desires to be recognized by the media simply as TCU (acronym only).

In all sports-related media references, we respectfully urge that the university's teams be identified with an appropriate appellation — TCU. In subsequent references of the same presentation, the team may be referred to by nickname — Horned Frogs. A shorter version of the nickname, Frogs, is acceptable in later usage.

KEY FACTS

TCU'S WINNING WAYS

- After just three winning seasons in 13 years (1985-97), TCU has won over 70 percent (87-36, .707) of its games since 1998 when head coach Gary Patterson arrived as defensive coordinator.
- TCU has an all-time record of 546-509-57 (.517) in its football history which began in 1896.
- TCU's 30-8 record (.789) since 2005 ranks as the 10th-best mark in the nation.
- Dating back to the start of the 2000 campaign, the Frogs' .735 winning percentage (72-26) places 13th nationally.
- TCU's 46 wins over the last five years (2003-07) are tied for 14th in the country.

2007 TCU HONOR ROLL

FROGS PROMINENT ON 2007 All-MWC TEAMS

- TCU had 11 players on the 2007 All-Mountain West Conference football team.
- Defensive end Chase Ortiz and return specialist Brian Bonner were first-team selections, while center Blake Schlueter, linebacker Jason Phillips and safeties Stephen Hodge and David Roach were named to the second team.
- Honorable-mention picks were linebacker Robert Henson, placekicker Chris Manfredini, offensive tackle Marshall Newhouse, cornerback Rafael Priest and punter Derek Wash.

FROGS PRAISED BY DAVE CAMPBELL'S

- Dave Campbell's Texas Football named Chase Ortiz and Jason Phillips the state's Best Defensive Lineman and Linebacker, respectively, for the 2007 season.
- Ortiz and Phillips were joined on the All-Texas College Defense by safety David Roach and return specialist Brian Bonner. The Frogs had four first-team selections on that side of the ball. No other school had more than two picks. Safety Stephen Hodge was a second-team choice.
- Center Blake Schlueter represented TCU on the All-Texas College First-Team Offense.

ROOKIES RECEIVE ACCOLADES

- Quarterback Andy Dalton and nose tackle Kelly Griffin were honorable-mention Freshman All-Americans by The Sporting News.

ALL-MAYDAY TEAM INCLUDES COMBS

- TCU placekicker Drew Combs was selected to ESPN college football analyst Mark May's All-Mayday Team.
- The All-Mayday Team, chosen by May, honors college players who have shown a tremendous amount of toughness and determination throughout a season and/or career.
- Combs is the second Horned Frog in the last three seasons to be named to the All-Mayday Team. Former nose tackle Jared Kesler was on the 2005 squad after playing with a torn ACL.
- Born with a left arm that ends just below the elbow, Combs was the Frogs' kickoff specialist in 2007. The Houston native earned the job after winning a competition in preseason camp.

WEEKLY HONOR ROLL

- Jason Phillips - MWC Defensive Player of the Week vs. San Diego State (Nov. 24)
- Joseph Turner - MWC Co-Offensive Player of the Week vs. San Diego State (Nov. 24)
- Chase Ortiz - MWC Defensive Player of the Week vs. UNLV (Nov. 17)
- Stephen Hodge - MWC Co-Defensive Player of the Week vs. New Mexico (Nov. 3)
- Aaron Brown - MWC Offensive Player of the Week vs. Colorado State (Sept. 29)

BOWLING NOTES

STREAKING

- TCU has won three straight bowl games for the first time since the first three bowl games (1936-39) in its history.
- The Frogs are one of just 11 teams to have a current bowl winning streak of at least three games:

1. Boston College - 8
2. Utah - 7
3. Oregon State - 4
   Texas - 4
5. TCU - 3
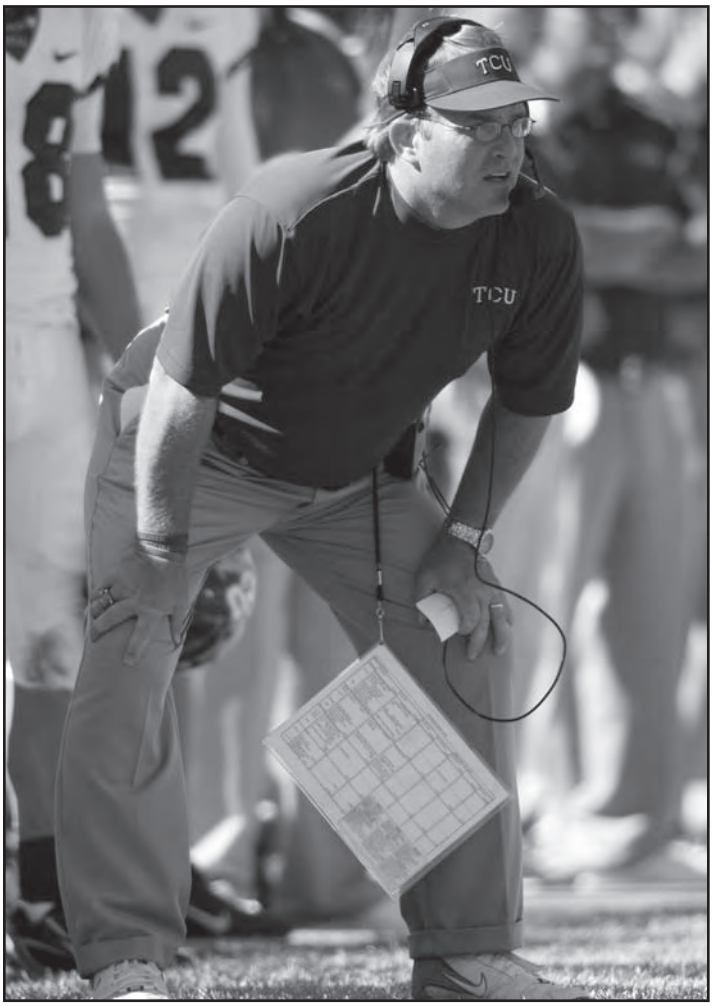
   California - 3
   Cincinnati - 3
   LSU - 3
   Mississippi State - 3
   Penn State - 3
   West Virginia - 3

SELECT COMPANY

- TCU is one of just 18 teams to appear in at least nine bowl games the last 10 seasons. The others are Florida (10), Florida State (10), Georgia (10), Georgia Tech (10), Michigan (10), Texas (10), Virginia Tech (10), Boston College (9), Louisville (9), Miami, Fla. (9), Ohio State (9), Oklahoma (9), Oregon (9), Purdue (9), Southern Miss (9), Tennessee (9) and Wisconsin (9).



Gary Patterson has led TCU to 10 victories four times in the last six years.

HORNED FROG OFFENSIVE NOTES

DALTON RECORD WATCH

- Quarterback Andy Dalton set TCU single-season records for completions (222) and attempts (371) in 2007:

	Dalton	Previous TCU Record
Completions	222	207 (Max Knake, 1993)
Attempts	371	369 (Max Knake, 1995)

DALTON FARES WELL WITH OTHER ROOKIES

- Andy Dalton placed fifth among freshman quarterbacks nationally in completions (221) and pass attempts (371) while ranking sixth in yards (2,459) and completion percentage (59.8).

DALTON CONTINUES TRADITION

- The 27-0 win over Baylor made Andy Dalton the fifth-straight quarterback to win his first start under head coach Gary Patterson. Dalton became the first TCU signal caller in the Patterson era to make his collegiate debut as a starter.
- The last redshirt freshman quarterback to start for TCU was Tye Gunn in 2002.
- Dalton's 320 yards passing at Air Force and 344 at Stanford were the most by a Frog since Gunn had 368 yards in a 48-45 double-overtime win over Northwestern in 2004. Dalton just missed a third 300-yard game with 298 at San Diego State.
- The 344 yards at Stanford place Dalton eighth on the Frogs' single-game passing list.

THE TWO-HEADED MONSTER

- Joseph Turner and Aaron Brown, TCU's top-two ground gainers, rushed for a combined 1,087 yards on a 4.9 per carry average. They represented 50.7 percent of TCU's season rushing total. The remainder of the Frogs totaled 1,058 yards with a 3.0 per carry mark.
- Turner (597 yards) and Brown (490 yards) both missed significant playing time due to injury last season.

MR. BIG PLAY

- Tight end Shae Reagan, a converted quarterback, has a 19.7 career yards per catch mark to rank third all-time at TCU.
- Reagan has 25 career receptions for 493 yards, including a personal-best three catches in the 20-13 Texas Bowl win over Houston. His first 17 receptions resulted in first downs.

THE DUAL THREAT

- Wide receiver Jeremy Kerley, the only true freshman to see action on offense in 2007, had a pair of 27-yard pass completions for a quarterback rating of 326.8.
- Five of Kerley's nine receptions on the season came in the final two games, including a personal-best three grabs in the 20-13 Texas Bowl win over Houston.

POINTS ON THE BOARD

- TCU scored at least 20 points in its last 10 games and in 11 of 13 contests in 2007.

NUMBERS THAT LEAD TO WINS

- TCU has won 21 in a row when rushing for at least 167 yards.
- Under Gary Patterson as head coach, the Frogs are 29-2 when totaling 200 or more yards on the ground.
- TCU is 6-0 when Joseph Turner rushes for at least 56 yards.
- The Frogs were 7-0 when attempting 34 or fewer passes in a game last season.
- TCU was 5-0 when completing 18 or less pass attempts.

THE TOUCHDOWN MAKER

- Wide receiver Bart Johnson had three touchdowns on his seven touches last season, with five of his six receptions recorded in the fourth quarter.
- Johnson's first collegiate touch came when he scooped up a blocked punt versus SMU and returned it 17 yards for a touchdown.
- Johnson's six receptions came in just three games. He had two grabs against Wyoming, BYU and Houston. The touchdowns came at Wyoming and BYU.
- Johnson tied for second on the team with his two TD catches on the year.

THERE'S ENOUGH FOR EVERYONE

- TCU ranked in a tie with Colorado for third nationally with 18 players having at least one reception last season. Nebraska led with 20, while Troy was second at 19.
- TCU tied for 14th with eight players having a scoring grab.
- Ten Frog receivers had at least 10 receptions.
- Seven of the top-eight Frogs surpassed their total from 2006:

Rnk	Name	2007 Receptions	2006 Receptions
1.	Ervin Dickerson	40	12
2.	Donald Massey	29	26
3.	Walter Bryant	27	10
4.	Aaron Brown	24	34
5.	Jimmy Young	23	0*
	Marcus Brock	23	3
7.	Derek Moore	18	8
8.	Ryan Christian	18	2

*Redshirt

ON THE GROUND AND IN THE AIR

- The following is a game-by-game breakdown of the rushing and passing numbers for the TCU offense last season:

MAGIC NUMBERS

- TCU is 19-1 in its last 20 games when allowing less than 333 yards of offense.
- Prior to the 27-20 loss to Utah in which the Utes had just 227 yards, TCU had won 17 in a row when holding its opponent under 333 yards.
- With head coach Gary Patterson, the Frogs are 37-5 when their opponent is at or below 300 yards of total offense.

SACK MASTERS

- The Frogs led the Mountain West Conference and tied for 12th nationally with 41 sacks.
- TCU had a season-high six sacks on two occasions.
- TCU recorded 40 sacks in its last 11 games. The Frogs had just one sack in their opening two contests.

STUFFING THE RUN

- TCU effectively shut down several top running backs last season:

Name	Rush Atts.-Yds.	Season Avg.
Kyle Bell, Colorado State	7-9	57.6
Rodney Ferguson, New Mexico	13-28	98.1
Frank Summers, UNLV	7-15	77.3
Anthony Alridge, Houston	15-29	122.8

NO FRIEND OF RUNNING BACKS

- TCU is 43-5 under head coach Gary Patterson when holding its opponent under 100 yards rushing.
- During his 87-game tenure as head coach, Patterson has seen just 17 100-yard rushing games by opposing players.
- Nearly half (71) of Air Force's 146 rushing yards came on one carry. The other 41 attempts gained 75 yards (1.8 per rush).
- Only 11 of TCU's last 29 foes have surpassed 86 yards rushing. During that span, TCU has surrendered 77.4 yards per game.

FROGS SHINE IN RED ZONE

- In its last 21 games, TCU has allowed only 21 touchdowns on the opponent's 57 trips (36.8 percent) to the red zone. Six failed possessions came from Frog interceptions.

HORNED FROG DEFENSIVE NOTES

UNFAMILIAR SCENES

- TCU allowed a touchdown on the opponent's opening drive of the game just twice last season and in a span of 15 games dating back to Nov. 25, 2006 at Colorado State.
- Only three times last year did TCU opponents score on their first offensive series. Utah and BYU had touchdowns, while Colorado State kicked a field goal.
- The Frogs have allowed a first-quarter touchdown just eight times in their last 31 games.

BLANKINGS

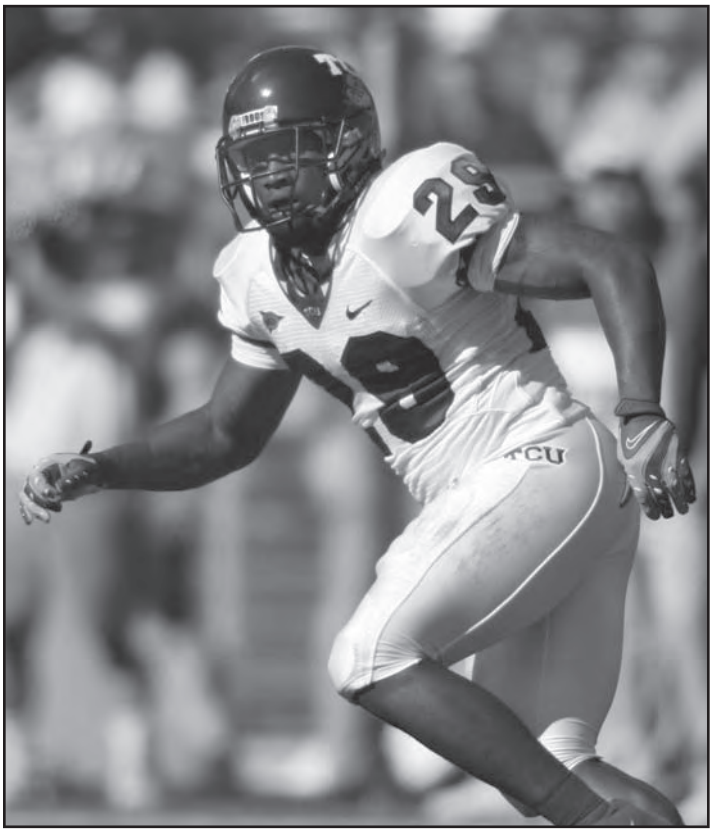
- TCU was one of five teams (Boise State, LSU, New Mexico, Penn State) in the nation to record two shutouts last season.
- The Frogs blanked Baylor (27-0) and New Mexico (37-0). It was the first time since 2000 (Navy, Rice) that TCU posted two shutouts in a season.
- Dating back to 2005, the Frogs have held the opposition without a touchdown in seven of their last 14 home games.

SACK TERROR

- Stephen Hodge led all defensive backs in the nation with 8.0 sacks. He had 7.0 sacks in the last seven games.
- Hodge's 8.0 sacks on the season were second on TCU, fourth in the MWC and tied for 44th nationally among all players.
- In the last six games, Hodge also took part in defensive and special teams scores.

DEFENDING THE PASS

- TCU, which allowed just 13 touchdown passes, was second in the MWC and 11th nationally in pass defense efficiency with a rating of 107.8.



Stephen Hodge's eight sacks in 2007 were the most for any defensive back in the nation. The total ranked fourth in the MWC.

Steven Coleman tied for the team lead in 2007 with three interceptions.

PICK PARTIES

- TCU's 16 interceptions, which tied for second in the MWC, were by 10 different players.
- Rafael Priest and Steven Coleman tied for the team lead with three interceptions.
- The Frogs returned two picks for scores in 2007. Robert Henson had a 58-yard return against SMU, while Torrey Stewart had a 45-yard jaunt into the end zone at Texas.
- TCU has returned four interceptions for touchdowns in its last 20 games.
- TCU's 16 interceptions equaled its total from the 2006 season. However, the Frogs had 313 return yards in 2007 compared to 176 in 2006.

DEFENSE AT ITS BEST

- The 323.6 yards per game allowed by TCU last season ranked as the fourth-lowest total in the seven-year tenure of head coach Gary Patterson.
- Included below is a year-by-year look at TCU defensively under Patterson:

Year	Ppg.	Rushing Defense	Passing Defense	Total Defense
2001	23.4	93.8	228.7	322.5
2002	18.5	64.8	175.4	240.2
2003	21.2	93.7	255.8	349.5
2004	33.9	122.0	304.0	426.0
2005	18.6	107.9	221.2	329.1
2006	12.3	60.8	174.1	234.9
2007	18.7	103.5	220.2	323.6

HORNED FROG SPECIAL TEAMS NOTES

STRONG UNITS

- TCU topped the MWC while placing 12th nationally in punt return average (13.7 yards).
- The Frogs were third in the league and 23rd in the country in net punting (37.3 yards).
- TCU foes averaged just 5.6 yards on 27 punt returns and 17.3 on kickoff returns.

BLOCK PARTIES

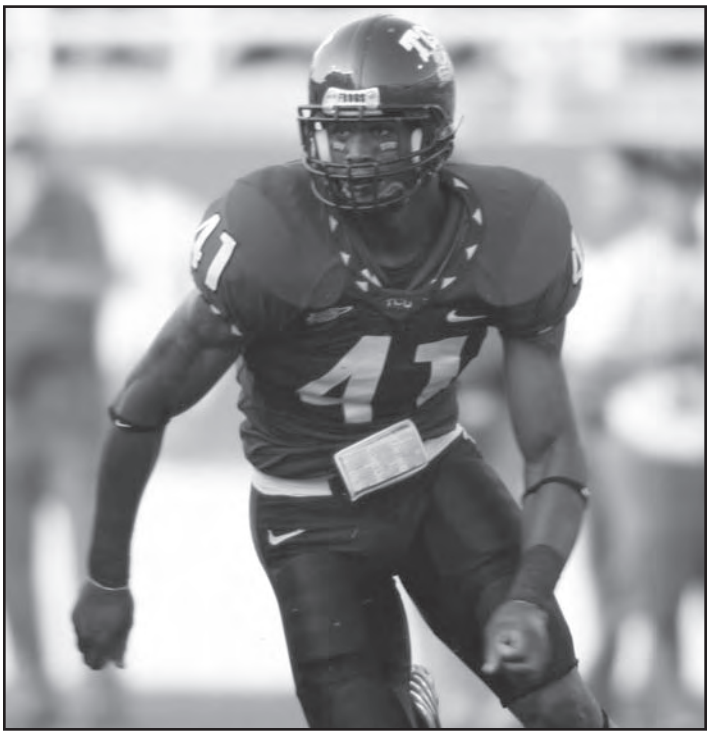
- TCU blocked four punts last season and six in its last 17 games.
- Daryl Washington blocked three punts (Air Force, Wyoming and Utah) in 2007.
- Washington was one of just two players nationally to have three punt blocks. Ohio's Joshua Abrams was the other.
- The Frogs scored twice off blocked punts last season. Prior to 2007, TCU had not scored directly off a blocked punt since 2003.
- Washington's third blocked punt of the season came against Utah. Stephen Hodge caught the ball in full stride off a perfect bounce, split a pair of Utes and raced 31 yards into the end zone for TCU's first points of the game.
- Colin Jones blocked an SMU punt that Bart Johnson returned 17 yards for a score.

IN SEARCH OF THE END ZONE

- TCU has not returned a punt for a touchdown in its last 73 games, the eighth-longest current streak in the nation.

OLD SCHOOL

- Drew Combs, who was born with a left arm that ends just below the elbow, was the Frogs' kickoff specialist in 2007 after winning the competition in preseason camp.
- Combs, a straight-on kicker, had six touchbacks and two tackles last season.
- Combs originally attended Arkansas and was a walk-on to the Razorback football team, but he did not see game action before transferring to TCU.



Daryl Washington blocked three punts as a sophomore.

FROG TIDBITS

MAGIC NUMBER 17

- With Gary Patterson as head coach, TCU is 41-0 when allowing 17 points or less. Overall, the Frogs have won 56 consecutive games when holding the opponent to 17 or fewer points.
- The streak began after a 17-7 loss at Northwestern on Sept. 11, 1999.

THE TURNOVER STORY

- Over the last three seasons, TCU is 24-1 when ahead (21-1) or even (3-0) in turnover margin. The Frogs are 6-7 when on the negative side.
- Against BYU, TCU lost for the first time since Oct. 15, 2004 at UAB when holding the edge in turnover margin. The Frogs had two takeaways while committing one turnover at BYU.
- Since the start of the 2005 season, TCU is 30-8. In five of the eight defeats, the Frogs have been at minus-2 or worse in turnover margin. TCU won at San Diego State despite being at minus-3 for the game.
- TCU has posted at least one takeaway in 37 of its last 41 contests.

CONFERENCE SUCCESS

- TCU's 13-6 record (.684) over its last 19 league games ranks in the top 20 nationally for best record in conference play over that span.
- Ohio State and BYU are the leaders at 18-1 (.947).

DEFENDING THEIR HOME

- Since 2000, TCU is 39-6 in home games at Amon G. Carter Stadium.
- TCU has recorded three shutouts in its past eight home dates. The Frogs blanked Baylor (27-0) and New Mexico (37-0) last season.
- Dating back to the 2005 campaign, the Frogs have held the opposition without a touchdown in seven of their last 14 home games.
- In their last nine home contests, the Frogs have outscored their opponents 279-73 (an average margin of 31-8).

WINNING CLASSES

- The 2008 seniors have been a part of 35 victories over the last four seasons and have an opportunity to enter the Frogs' top-10 chart for most wins over a five-year period:

	5-year period	Wins
1.	1931-35	49
	1932-36	49
3.	2002-06	48
4.	1929-33	47
5.	2003-07	46
	1930-34	46
7.	1928-32	45
	1999-03	45

2008 TCU SPRING OUTLOOK

TCU OFFENSE

Led by quarterbacks Andy Dalton and Marcus Jackson, TCU returns eight starters on offense. Included in that total are the Horned Frogs' top-two rushers in Joseph Turner and Aaron Brown as well as four starters on the offensive line. TCU placed third in the Mountain West Conference last season with an average of 386.6 yards per game in total offense.

In Andy Dalton (6-3, 210, So.) and Marcus Jackson (6-1, 216, Jr.), TCU has two quarterbacks who give the Frogs an opportunity to be successful.

Dalton set single-season TCUs records for completions (222) and attempts (371) while finishing second in passing yards (2,459). His 59.8 completion percentage placed fourth. Dalton threw just two interceptions in his final 96 attempts with one of those picks coming on a Hail Mary.

A native of Katy, Texas, Dalton became a running threat late in the season. Over the final four games, he led TCU in rushing twice as he averaged 52.5 yards per contest on a 5.0 per carry mark. He ran for five touchdowns on the year with four of the scores coming in the last four contests.

Having a year of experience under his belt should enable Dalton to make all of his teammates better.

Pushing Dalton for the starting job is Jackson, who came off the bench to lead the Frogs on touchdown drives in three of the last five games.

Jackson completed 15-of-21 (71.4 percent) passes over his final three contests in 2007. He had just one interception in 69 attempts on the year. The Houston native placed fifth on the Frogs with 187 yards rushing.

Jackson made his collegiate debut in the 2006 season opener when he rallied the Frogs to a 17-7 win at Baylor.

TCU will have just two scholarship quarterbacks in spring practice. A third scholarship signal caller will arrive this fall in newcomer Yogi Gallegos (6-0, 182, Fr.).

Aaron Brown is TCU's 12th-leading career rusher with 2,049 yards.

Running back is one of the deepest positions for the Frogs in 2008.

Aaron Brown (6-1, 196, Sr.), the 2007 Preseason Mountain West Conference Offensive Player of the Year, is primed for his best season as a senior. After enduring an injury-plagued 2007 campaign, Brown has set a leadership example with his maturity and attitude in off-season workouts.

Despite being limited to action in parts of nine games, Brown placed second on the Frogs with 490 yards rushing on a 4.6 per carry average. The Katy, Texas, native is only the 12th player in TCU history to surpass 2,000 career yards rushing (2,049).

Brown was fourth on the Frogs with 24 receptions last season.

Joseph Turner (6-1, 226, Jr.), last year's leading rusher with 597 yards, will not take part in spring drills after suffering a knee injury in the Texas Bowl win over Houston. He is expected to be ready for preseason camp in August.

Selected by his teammates as TCU's 2007 Offensive Most Valuable Player, Turner closed the regular season by rushing for 226 yards and four touchdowns on 33 carries in a 45-33 win at San Diego State. It was the most yards by a Frog since 2002 and the 14th-best effort in TCU history.

Like Brown, Turner was slowed by injury throughout last season. The Frogs were 6-2 in games that Turner was healthy throughout the contest. TCU was 5-0 when he rushed for at least 56 yards.

Justin Watts (5-10, 195, Sr.), a very steady back, was huge for the Frogs in the Texas Bowl victory over Houston. With Brown and Turner unavailable due to injury, Watts rushed for a team-high 46 yards on 12 carries. His 7-yard fourth-quarter scoring run provided the go-ahead points at Reliant Stadium.

Redshirt freshmen Jai Cavness (5-8, 175, RFr.) and Jercell Fort (5-11, 175, RFr.) will compete for playing time at tailback. Fort, a Los Angeles native, was moved from cornerback midway through last season.

With the graduation of William Jackson, Chris Smith (5-11, 231, Jr.) moves to the top of the depth chart at fullback. Behind Smith is converted linebacker Luke Shivers (6-0, 205, RFr.).

WIDE RECEIVER

Returning Starter: Donald Massey
Returning Lettermen: Walter Bryant, William Cage, Curtis Clay, Ryan Christian, Bart Johnson, Jeremy Kerley
Redshirts: Jonathan Jones
Starters Lost: Marcus Brock, Ervin Dickerson
Lettermen Lost: Derek Moore

The wide receiver position could be a strength for TCU in 2008. The Frogs have a nice mix of skilled veterans and talented young players.

After closing last season very strong, Walter Bryant (6-4, 206, Sr.) is primed for an outstanding senior year. The San Angelo, Texas, native has increased his size and strength and been a leader in off-season workouts.

Bryant placed third on the Frogs with 27 receptions, including a career-best seven grabs in the regular-season finale at San Diego State.

Joining Bryant in first-team positions at receiver are Bart Johnson (6-1, 190, So.), Jeremy Kerley (5-10, 185, So.) and Jimmy Young (6-1, 200, So.).

2008 TCU SPRING OUTLOOK

Johnson made several big plays for the Frogs at both receiver and on special teams last season. Five of his six receptions came in the fourth quarter.

Johnson scored three touchdowns on just seven touches. He had receiving scores at Wyoming and BYU in addition to reaching the end zone with a return of a blocked punt versus SMU.

The only true freshman to see action on offense for the Frogs last season, Kerley continues to emerge as a big-play weapon. Five of his nine receptions on the year came in the season's final two games.

A former prep quarterback, Kerley had 27-yard pass completions in back-to-back contests versus Utah and New Mexico.

Just a sophomore, Young is on pace to become one of the top receivers in the Mountain West Conference. He had 23 catches a year ago for a 14.1-yard average, best among the Frogs' top-six receivers.

Young posted TCU's first 100-yard receiving day in nearly two years when he totaled 110 yards on three receptions, including a 70-yard touchdown catch, in the 38-36 win at Stanford.

Ryan Christian (5-11, 188, Jr.) is back at receiver, his original position at TCU, after moving to tailback last season. The local product from Aledo had 18 receptions out of the backfield while finishing third on the team with 321 yards rushing.

Donald Massey (5-11, 172, Sr.) was the Frogs' second-leading receiver with a personal-best 29 grabs. He is the Frogs' active leader with 76 career receptions. The Hillsboro, Texas, native totaled a personal-best 196 all-purpose yards in a win at San Diego State last year.

Tyler Luttrell (6-1, 195, So.) and Clint Renfro (6-0, 160, So.), sons of former TCU football standouts, figure prominently in the Frogs' 2008 plans.

Curtis Clay (6-0, 180, So.) and William Cage (6-4, 202, Sr.) are returning lettermen who add depth to the receiver position.

Redshirt freshman Jonathan Jones (6-4, 197, RFr.) has outstanding size and will push for immediate playing time.

Blake Schlueter anchors a TCU offensive line that returns four of five starters from last season's starting lineup.

TIGHT END

Returning Starter: Shae Reagan
Returning Lettermen: Evan Frosch
Redshirts: Logan Brock
Starters Lost: N/A
Lettermen Lost: Quinton Cunigan, Tom Stevens

Returning starter Shae Reagan (6-4, 261, Sr.) is a big-play weapon and one of the top tight ends in the Mountain West Conference.

The former TCU quarterback ranks third on the Frogs' career list for average yards per reception at 20.8. Hampered by injury last season, Reagan had 11 catches for 193 yards (17.5 average). He closed the campaign with a career-best three grabs in the Texas Bowl win over Houston.

Evan Frosch (6-4, 235, So.) started three games in 2007 with all five of his receptions coming in TCU victories. He'll enter the spring in a second-team position behind Reagan.

Logan Brock (6-3, 230, RFr.) will push for playing time after redshirting last season.

OFFENSIVE LINE

Returning Starters: OG Giles Montgomery, OT Marshall Newhouse, C Blake Schlueter, OT Nic Richmond
Returning Lettermen: OT Marcus Cannon, OT Robert Clark, OG Josh Karlin, C Jake Kirkpatrick, OG Preston Phillips
Redshirts: OT Jeff Olson, OG Spencer Thompson
Starters Lost: OG Matty Lindner
Lettermen Lost: C Tony Savino

The TCU offensive line returns four starters, and with an additional year of experience under its belt, is expected to be much improved this season.

Returning All-Mountain West Conference center Blake Schlueter (6-3, 272, Sr.) anchors the line. The Ganado, Texas, native has started all but one game the last two seasons and was a first-team selection on Dave Campbell's Texas Football All-Texas College Team. He also appeared on the watch list for the Rimington Trophy as the nation's top center.

Schlueter is backed up by veteran Tyler Marrou (6-5, 268, Jr.) and Jake Kirkpatrick (6-3, 273, So.).

Starting tackles Marshall Newhouse (6-3, 317, Jr.) and Nic Richmond (6-8, 298, Jr.) both return after starting all 13 games a year ago.

Newhouse, an honorable-mention All-MWC pick, topped the Frogs in knockdown blocks and overall blocking grade from his left tackle position. He is on pace to being one of the top TCU linemen in recent years. The Dallas native was the only true freshman to play on offense in 2006.

Robert Clark (6-6, 255, Sr.), a very good athlete, and Jeff Olson (6-4, 253, RFr.) add depth behind Newhouse.

After playing very well down the stretch last season, Marcus Cannon (6-5, 319, So.) will push Richmond for his starting job on the right side. Cannon could also see action at guard.

Giles Montgomery (6-5, 295, Sr.) is a returning starter at right guard. Josh Karlin (6-4, 280, Jr.), who lettered in a reserve role, is behind Montgomery.

Karlin and Preston Phillips (6-6, 293, Sr.) will battle for the starting job at left guard vacated by the graduation of Matty Lindner. Phillips made his first collegiate start in the Frogs' 37-0 win over New Mexico last season. He is a two-year letterman.

2008 TCU SPRING OUTLOOK

Josh Vernon (6-2, 295, So.) and Spencer Thompson (6-4, 270, RFr.) will compete for playing time at left guard.

Heath Raetz (6-5, 315, Sr.), sidelined most of the 2007 campaign by injury, also figures prominently into the mix at guard.

TCU DEFENSE

The Horned Frogs welcome back six starters on defense, including three-time All-MWC linebackers Jason Phillips and Robert Henson. Safety Steven Hodge, the nation's sack leader among defensive backs last season, anchors the secondary. Nose tackle James Vess, a key starter in 2006 and an All-MWC candidate, returns to action after sitting out last year for a violation of University policy. TCU placed among the top 15 nationally last season in scoring defense (18.7 points per game), run defense (103.5 yards per game), pass defense efficiency (107.8 rating), sacks (41) and total defense (323.6 yards per game).

DEFENSIVE LINE

Returning Starters: NT Kelly Griffin, DT Cody Moore
Returning Lettermen: DE Allen Christopher, DT John Fonua, DT Cory Grant, DE Jerry Hughes, DE Matt Panfil
Redshirts: DE Braylon Broughton, DE Wayne Daniels
Starters Lost: DE Tommy Blake, DE Chase Ortiz
Lettermen Lost: N/A

Despite losing highly decorated ends Tommy Blake and Chase Ortiz to graduation, the TCU defensive front is loaded with talented players ready to fill their shoes.

Bolstering the front is the return of nose tackle James Vess (6-3, 282, Sr.), who sat out last season per a violation of University policy. With the double teams that he'll command, Vess will make the Frog linebackers better.

Kelly Griffin became the first true freshman to crack the starting lineup under head coach Gary Patterson last season.

Vess played extremely well down the stretch in the 2006 campaign, twice being named TCU's Defensive Player of the Week and recording four sacks in the final seven games. He is an All-MWC caliber player.

Kelly Griffin (6-1, 280, So.) started all 13 games last season in becoming the first true freshman to start in the seven-year tenure of head coach Gary Patterson. Griffin was an honorable-mention Freshman All-American.

Henry Niutei (6-4, 292, So.) adds depth to the nose guard position.

Veteran Cody Moore (6-1, 292, Sr.) is a mainstay at tackle on the TCU defensive line. He started all 13 games last season and totaled 5.5 tackles for a loss.

Behind Moore are returning lettermen John Fonua (5-10, 270, Sr.) and Cory Grant (6-2, 303, So.). Fonua came to the Frogs as a junior college transfer, while Grant totaled two sacks in his first season of competition at TCU.

Matt Panfil (6-2, 232, Sr.) is the lone senior among the Frogs' six defensive ends. The local product from North Crowley High School in Fort Worth played very well in starting six games last season and placing among the Frogs' top-10 tackles with 37 stops.

Panfil will occupy the starting job at right end and be backed up by Wayne Daniels (6-2, 240, So.) and Clarence Leatch (6-4, 238, So.). Daniels saw action as a true freshman in 2006 before a redshirt season last year.

Jerry Hughes (6-2, 248, Jr.), who played well in a reserve role last season with 29 tackles, will move into a first-team role at left end. Hughes made his first collegiate start in the 37-0 win over New Mexico.

Pushing Hughes for playing time are Allen Christopher (6-4, 236, Jr.) and Braylon Broughton (6-6, 250, RFr.). Christopher is a two-year letterman, while Broughton has a tremendous upside.

LINEBACKER

Returning Starters: Jason Phillips
Returning Lettermen: Robert Henson, Daryl Washington
Redshirts: Tank Carder, Chris Goodson, Kris Gardner
Starters Lost: David Hawthorne
Lettermen Lost: Darius Ingram

In keeping with an annual tradition, the linebacker corps is again a strength of the TCU football team.

Starters Jason Phillips (6-1, 234, Sr.) and Robert Henson (6-1, 228, Sr.), both three-time All-MWC selections, have played as many snaps as any linebacker duo in the nation. They are joined by Daryl Washington (6-3, 228, Jr.) to form an extremely talented trio.

Phillips, TCU's top tackler with 87 stops, is an All-America candidate. He appeared on watch lists last season for the Rotary Lombardi Award and Dick Butkus Award as well as being named the State's Best Linebacker by Dave Campbell's Texas Football.

A native of Waller, Texas, Phillips has started all 38 games the last three seasons with his 231 career tackles the best among active Frogs.

Despite starting just one game last season, Henson placed fifth on the Frogs with 66 tackles. He became the first Frog linebacker since 1995 to return an interception for a touchdown when he went 58 yards with a pick in a win over SMU. Henson's 199 career stops rank second for current Frogs behind only Phillips.

Washington totaled 32 tackles and played extremely well in a reserve role. Like Henson, he is also an impact player on special teams.

Washington blocked three punts last season, in a span of just six games, to tie for the national lead. One of the blocks was returned by Stephen Hodge for a touchdown against Utah.

Tank Carder (6-2, 215, RFr.), Chris Goodson (6-0, 210, Jr.) and Kris Gardner (6-1, 220, RFr.) will push for playing time and add depth.

Carder has made unbelievable strides and is projected as a future

2008 TCU SPRING OUTLOOK

Rafael Priest has started every game in his two-year TCU career at cornerback.

impact player. Goodson, who came to TCU as a junior college transfer and was redshirted, was moved from safety last fall. Gardner also saw a position change as he made the switch from tight end.

CORNERBACK

Returning Starters: Rafael Priest, Nick Sanders
Returning Lettermen: Alex Ibiloye
Redshirts: Greg McCoy
Starters Lost: N/A
Lettermen Lost: Torrey Stewart

Rafael Priest (5-10, 163, Jr.) and Nick Sanders (5-10, 174, Jr.) have started all 26 games the last two seasons and will be in their third year playing alongside each other.

Priest was an honorable-mention All-MWC selection in 2007. He ranked among the league leaders with 13 passes defended, including a team-best 10 break-ups. The Dallas native tied for the TCU lead with three interceptions.

Sanders, an honorable-mention Freshman All-American in 2006, totaled 39 tackles to go with four PBUs and an interception.

Alex Ibiloye (6-0, 170, So.) and Greg McCoy (5-10, 172, RFr.) will compete for playing time while also adding depth.

Ibiloye lettered in a reserve role last season while also contributing on special teams. McCoy was a redshirt in his first season on campus. He has a very promising future at TCU.

SAFETY

Returning Starters: Stephen Hodge
Returning Lettermen: Andy Burrell, Steven Coleman, Corderra Hunter, Tejay Johnson, Colin Jones
Medical Redshirts: Sir Demarco Bledsoe
Redshirts: Tekerrein Cuba, Johnny Fobbs, Chez Thomas
Starters Lost: Brian Bonner, David Roach
Lettermen Lost: N/A

Stephen Hodge (6-0, 212, Sr.) returns as the starter at strong safety, while the free and weak spots will be marked by a high level of competition.

Hodge was last year's national leader in sacks by a defensive back with eight. It was just one shy of TCU's team-high total of nine by Chase Ortiz. Hodge's insertion into the starting lineup prior to a 37-0 win over New Mexico jumpstarted the Frogs to victories in four of their final five games.

A native of Tatum, Texas, Hodge recorded seven sacks in the final seven games. His 10.5 tackles for a loss on the season tied Jason Phillips for second on the Frogs. Hodge, a second-team All-MWC selection, also took part in defensive and special teams touchdowns.

Adding depth behind Hodge are Sir Demarco Bledsoe (6-2, 175, RFr.) and Colin Jones (6-0, 205, So.).

Bledsoe received a medical redshirt last year. As a true freshman, he suffered a knee injury in the season-opening 27-0 win over Baylor that put an end to his rookie campaign. Jones lettered in a reserve role while also contributing on special teams.

Steven Coleman (6-3, 204, Sr.), who started eight games last season, enters the spring in a first-team position at free safety. His three interceptions tied for the team lead.

Pushing Coleman for playing time are 2007 redshirts Johnny Fobbs (6-0, 190, RFr.) and Chez Thomas (5-10, 180, RFr.). Fobbs was named TCU's Scout Team Defensive Player of the Year.

Tejay Johnson (6-1, 195, So.), one of four true freshmen to see action last season, will compete with Corderra Hunter (6-2, 202, Jr.) for the starting position at weak safety. Redshirt freshman Tekerrein Cuba (6-4, 197, RFr.) will push for playing time.

SPECIALISTS

Returning Starters: KO Drew Combs, SN Clint Gresham, KR Donald Massey
Returning Lettermen: N/A
Redshirts: P Anson Kelton
Starters Lost: PR Brian Bonner, PK Chris Manfredini, P Derek Wash
Lettermen Lost: N/A

Snapper Clint Gresham (6-3, 225, Jr.) is one of the unsung heroes of the TCU football team.

A transfer from Oklahoma, Gresham was a walk-on to the Frogs. After an impressive 2007 season as the short and long snapper, Gresham was rewarded with a scholarship.

With the graduation of three-time All-MWC selection Chris Manfredini, incoming freshman and Burnet, Texas, native Ross Evans (5-8, 173, Fr.) is expected to handle the placekicking duties this fall. His 37 career field goals, including a pair of 53-yard efforts as a senior, rank second in Texas high school history.

Drew Combs (6-3, 225, Jr.), who was born with a left arm that ends just below the elbow, was the Frogs' kickoff specialist last season. Evans will challenge him for those duties.

Anson Kelton, from nearby Aledo, will take over as the Frogs' punter. He was a redshirt last season as Derek Wash went on to earn All-MWC accolades.

Wide receiver Jeremy Kerley (5-10, 185, So.) will take over for the graduated Brian Bonner on punt returns. Bonner's 535 punt return yards last year placed second on TCU's single-season list, behind only Heisman Trophy winner Davey O'Brien (549, 1937).

In Bonner (2006-07) and Cory Rodgers (2005), TCU has had the first-team All-MWC return specialist all three years it has been in the league.

Kerley, a former prep quarterback, will also serve as the Frogs' holder on kicks.

Donald Massey (5-11, 172, Sr.), Jimmy Young (6-1, 200, So.) and Ryan Christian (5-11, 188, Jr.) will handle kickoff returns.

Massey averaged 20.6 yards on 12 attempts last season, while Christian had a 23.3 mark on three returns.

COACHING STAFF

Gary PATTERSON

Head Coach
8th Year as TCU Head Coach
Kansas State, 1983

Since taking over the helm of the Horned Frogs in December 2000, Gary Patterson has become synonymous with TCU football.

Patterson is the only coach in TCU history to record more than two 10-win seasons. He has four in the last six years and is also the fastest Horned Frog coach to reach 50 victories.

Patterson's 62-25 (.713) record is the best mark of any TCU head coach after 87 games. Dutch Meyer, coach of the 1935 and 1938 national championship teams, is second (.667, 56-27-4, 1934-40). Patterson's 62 wins are third on the Frogs' career victory list. His .713 winning percentage is second among TCU coaches with more than 20 games under their belt and 13th among active coaches in the Football Bowl Subdivision (formerly called Division I-A).

The Frogs have won four conference titles with Patterson on staff in addition to posting five of the school's nine 10-win seasons. He was TCU's defensive coordinator from 1998-00.

During his 10 years on campus, Patterson has seen TCU make nine bowl appearances. With a 20-13 victory over Houston in the 2007 Texas Bowl, Patterson has led the Frogs to three straight bowl victories for the first time since the first three bowl games in school history (1936-39).

Patterson was the 2002 Conference USA and 2005 Mountain West Conference Coach of the Year. He was a 2003 finalist for Eddie Robinson and Bobby Dodd National Coach of the Year honors. He also appeared on the 2006 Bobby Dodd Watch List.

The Frogs are 9-2 in their last 11 games against teams from leagues with automatic BCS bids, including a 5-1 mark versus the Big 12 the past three seasons.

In seven seasons as a head coach, Patterson has coached 75 All-Conference selections, five All-Americans, 10 Freshman All-Americans and one Academic All-American.

In two of its first three seasons in the Mountain West, TCU has set the pace on the all-conference teams. The Frogs had 18 selections in 2005, 14 in 2006 and 11 in 2007.

In his tenure as TCU's head coach, Patterson has had 16 players drafted with a total of 30 in NFL camps.

An 11-2 record in 2006 included wins over Big 12 opponents Baylor and Texas Tech as well as a 37-7 victory over Northern Illinois in the Poinsettia Bowl.

The Frogs' defense ranked second nationally in run defense (60.8 yards per game) and total defense (234.9 yards per game) while placing third in scoring defense (12.3 points per game). The 2007 defensive unit is allowing 320.0 yards per game for the third-lowest total during Patterson's time as head coach.

TCU won its last eight games in 2006 for the fourth-best winning streak at the time in the nation, trailing only Boise State (13), BYU (10) and Wisconsin (9).

The Frogs' eight consecutive wins were by an average margin of 24.4 points. During that stretch, the TCU defense allowed per game marks of 10.8 points, 59.6 yards rushing and 185.1 in total offense.

In 2005, Patterson led the Frogs to the Mountain West Conference championship in their first season of league play.

It was also TCU's first outright conference championship since 1958. The Frogs posted an 11-1 record for just the fourth 11-win season in school history and the second in three years.

TCU also recorded its first undefeated league mark (8-0) dating back to 1938. Patterson has taken part in four conference titles with the Frogs.

The Frogs opened and closed the 2005 season with victories over Big 12 teams. Following a 27-24 EV1.net Houston Bowl win over Iowa State, Patterson saw TCU climb to ninth in the USA Today poll and 11th in the Associated Press poll. It was TCU's highest season-ending ranking since 1959.

TCU, picked to finish sixth in 2005 preseason MWC polls, opened the campaign with a 17-10 victory at No. 5 Oklahoma. It was TCU's first win against an opponent ranked that high since a 6-0 victory over No. 1 Texas in 1961.

The Frogs were 14th in the final BCS standings. TCU has appeared in the BCS standings 20 times, trailing only Boise State (26) for the most among schools from a non-automatic qualifying conference.

Patterson's success in 2005 was achieved while playing a total of 21 redshirt or true freshmen, tying for fourth nationally in that category.

The 2005 Frog defense led the nation in turnover margin (+21), interceptions (26) and takeaways (40). The offense set a single-season school record with 50 touchdowns while its 398 points scored ranked second all-time at TCU.

Setting the pace nationally in defensive categories is nothing new for Patterson.

COACHING STAFF

His teams led the country in defense during the 2000 and 2002 campaigns. In 2002, the Frogs allowed only 64.8 rushing yards per game - ranking first in that category as well.

Of the nine head coaches in the Mountain West Conference, only New Mexico's Rocky Long has accumulated more head coaching experience at their current school than Patterson. Prior to taking the top spot at TCU, Patterson spent three years as the Frogs' defensive coordinator and safeties coach.

TCU has been no stranger to the post-season in the Patterson era. The Frogs have emerged victorious five times in their run of eight bowl games in nine seasons, including a 17-3 win over MWC champion Colorado State in the 2002 AXA Liberty Bowl.

In his first full season as head coach with the Frogs in 2001, Patterson was one of only eight coaches with no previous Division I head coaching experience to lead their teams to bowl appearances. He proceeded to take the Frogs to a bowl in each of his first three years.

Patterson's 10-2 record and conference championship in 2002 earned him Conference USA Coach of the Year accolades. The Frogs finished the season ranked 22nd in the USA Today/ESPN Coaches Poll and 23rd in the Associated Press poll.

Eleven of Patterson's 54 career wins came in the Horned Frogs' 2003 campaign, when TCU climbed as high as sixth in the BCS rankings - the highest ranking at that time for a school from a non-automatic qualifying conference.

Under Patterson's guidance, the Frogs got off to a 10-0 start after opening the season ranked 25th in the Associated Press poll. They finished the season 11-2 and ranked in the top 25 for the second year in a row - the first time that had happened at TCU since the 1950s. His leadership of the 2003 squad made him a finalist for both the Eddie Robinson and Bobby Dodd Coach of the Year honors. He was also named an assistant coach for the Hula Bowl.

In 2004, the Frogs finished in the top 20 in the nation in scoring offense, passing offense and total offense. The Patterson chapter of TCU football, however, has been dominated by a tradition of defense. Since 1999, the Frogs have been ranked in the top five nationally in total defense four times.

Patterson amassed 18 years as an assistant coach, including three with the Frogs, before taking the torch from Dennis Franchione prior to the 2000 GMAC Mobile Alabama Bowl.

In 1998, Patterson's first season at TCU, the Horned Frogs scored a school-record six defensive touchdowns, intercepted 12 passes and allowed only 19.6 points per game - the fewest points per game in over 30 years. It was accomplished by a team that was 1-10 the previous season.

Patterson's 1999 TCU defense ended the season ranked fifth in the country in total defense. The Frogs posted two shutouts and led the Western Athletic Conference in every major defensive category.

In 2000, the Frogs allowed only 245.0 total yards and 9.6 points per game, ranking first in the nation in both categories. Five of Patterson's players earned first-team all-conference recognition and he was a finalist for the Frank Broyles National Assistant Coach of the Year award.

Prior to his arrival in Fort Worth, Patterson spent two seasons as the defensive coordinator and safeties coach at New Mexico. The Lobos collected 22 total takeaways and three defensive touchdowns in 1996. The next year, in Patterson style, New Mexico improved their total takeaways to 29, including 16 interceptions.

A true defensive specialist, Patterson had a similar impact at Navy. In just one season as the Midshipmen's secondary coach in 1995, he helped elevate the defense in the national rankings. Navy finished 18th in total defense, 17th in scoring defense and 28th in pass defense efficiency.

Patterson's defensive acumen dates back to his own playing days at Kansas State, where he played strong safety and outside linebacker for the Wildcats in 1980 and 1981.

He served as a graduate assistant in 1982 and received his bachelor's degree in physical education in 1983. He took the linebacker coaching position at Tennessee Tech while earning a master's degree in educational administration in 1984.

Patterson has been part of 12 bowl staffs, including one each with Kansas State, Utah State and New Mexico. The other nine have come at TCU. Aside from being an accomplished Division I head coach, Patterson is also a skilled guitar player. On several occasions, Patterson has entertained TCU fans with his guitar skills at pep rallies around the Fort Worth area.

A native of Rozel, Kansas, Patterson is married to the former Kelsey Hayes. He has three sons: Josh (19), Cade (12) and Blake (8).

COACHING STAFF

Jarrett ANDERSON

Wide Receivers
8th Year at TCU
New Mexico, 1993

Jarrett Anderson is in his eighth year as the TCU wide receivers coach and 11th overall with the Frogs.

Under Anderson's tutelage, three TCU receivers in the last four years have been drafted by NFL teams.

Cory Rodgers was a fourth-round pick by Green Bay in 2006, while Adrian Madise and LaTarence Dunbar were selected in the fifth and sixth rounds in 2003 by Denver and Atlanta, respectively. All three finished their careers in the top 10 of various TCU receiving categories.

Reggie Harrell, who signed as a free agent with Dallas, became the school's first 1,000-yard receiver in 2003 with the Horned Frogs.

During his three-year career, Rodgers tied Mike Renfro's career TCU mark of 17 receiving touchdowns.

Both Harrell and Rodgers rank among the top 10 in school history in career receptions and yards while earning all-conference recognition.

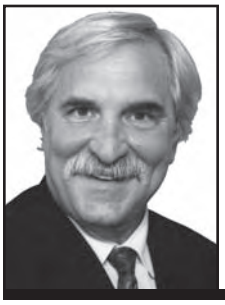
In 2006, Quentily Harmon closed his career as TCU's ninth-leading receiver with 111 catches. In addition, Michael DePriest was signed as a free-agent in 2007 by Indianapolis.

Prior to assuming his current duties, Anderson served on the TCU coaching staff as a graduate assistant from 1998-00, working primarily with the Frogs' offensive line.

Anderson spent one season (1997) as an assistant coach at Tyler Junior College, where he worked with the running backs and receivers. He began his collegiate playing career at Tyler before transferring to New Mexico. He lettered for the Lobos in both 1992 and 1993.

Anderson graduated from New Mexico in 1993 with a bachelor's degree in university studies and earned a master's degree in TCU's MLA program.

Anderson and his wife, Lisa, have a son: Aidan.



Dick BUMPAS

Defensive Coord./Defensive Line
5th Year at TCU
Arkansas, 1973

Dick Bumpas joined TCU in February 2004 as the defensive coordinator and defensive line coach.

Bumpas first worked with Horned Frog coach Gary Patterson at Kansas State in the early 1980s. He was the Wildcats' defensive line coach in 1981 when Patterson was a senior linebacker. Patterson then became a Kansas State graduate assistant in 1982 and joined Bumpas on staff.

The duo also worked together at Utah State from 1992-94 and at Navy in 1995. At both places, Bumpas was the defensive coordinator while Patterson was the secondary coach.

Aided by Bumpas,the 2006 TCU defense ranked second nationally in run defense (60.8 yards per game) and total defense (234.9 ypg.) while placing third in scoring defense (12.3 points per game).

Bumpas coached defensive ends Tommy Blake and Chase Ortiz to first-team All-Mountain West Conference honors in 2005 and 2006. This season, Ortiz became TCU's first three-time first-team all-conference player in 30 years (Mike Renfro, 1975-77).

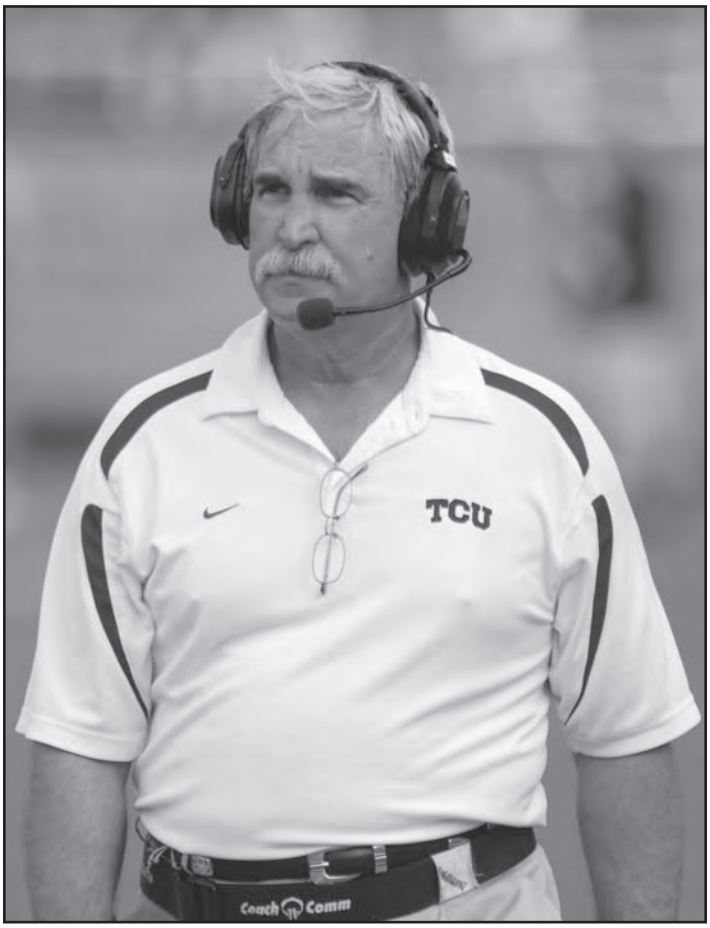
Bumpas was nominated for the 2005 Frank Broyles National Assistant Coach of the Year award. He was named the Rivals.com National Defensive Coordinator of the Week in 2005 following the Frogs' 17-10 win at Oklahoma.

The 2005 TCU defense led the nation in turnover margin (+21), interceptions (26) and takeaways (40). TCU topped the MWC with 41 sacks and allowed just three touchdowns in its final three games, keeping its opponent out of the end zone for 10 quarters.

In a coaching career that has spanned 29 years, Bumpas has won championships in four conferences and coached at all three service academies. He has also coached in 14 bowl games. Bumpas came to TCU after serving as Western Michigan's defensive coordinator for one season.

A native of Fort Smith, Ark., Bumpas was a three-year letterman and captain for the Razorbacks. He was named SWC Defensive Player of the Year in 1970, earning consensus All-America honors at defensive tackle. He received a bachelor's degree in education from Arkansas in 1973.

Bumpas is married to the former Gloria Surratt.



Dick Bumpas has helped build the TCU defense into one of the nation's top units during his four seasons on campus.

COACHING STAFF

Justin FUENTE

Running Backs
2nd Year at TCU
Murray State, 1999

Justin Fuente joined the TCU football coaching staff in February 2007 as running backs coach.

Fuente filled an opening with the Horned Frogs after quarterbacks coach Dick Winder announced his retirement following five seasons at TCU and 41 years in the coaching profession. TCU offensive coordinator Mike Schultz then switched from running backs coach to quarterbacks coach.

Fuente came to TCU after spending the previous six seasons as quarterbacks coach at Illinois State. The past three years saw him double as the Redbirds' offensive coordinator.

Fuente played two seasons (1996-97) at Oklahoma under Winder. At the time, Winder was the Sooners' offensive coordinator. Fuente set an Oklahoma freshman record with 11 touchdown passes. He then transferred to Murray State for his final two years of eligibility.

Fuente set 11 school records at Murray State, including total offense and passing yards in a game and season. He was the Ohio Valley Conference Offensive Player of the Year and a finalist for the Walter Payton Award, given annually to the nation's top player in Division I-AA.

Under Fuente's direction, Illinois State ranked in the top 10 nationally in total offense the last two seasons. The Redbirds placed eighth in 2006 with an average of 397.5 yards per game after ranking fifth in both total offense (477.6 yards) and scoring (39.2 points) in 2005.

Fuente coached Redbird quarterback Luke Drone to first-team All-Gateway Conference honors as he led the league in passing (227.8 yards) and total offense (231.6 yards). Running back Pierre Rembert set an Illinois State single-season record while ranking sixth nationally in rushing with 1,743 yards (134.1 per game).

Following his collegiate career, Fuente played professionally with the Oklahoma Wranglers in the Arena League. A 1999 graduate of Murray State, Fuente is a native of Tulsa, Okla.

Fuente and his wife, Jenny, have a daughter: Cecila Mae. Jenny was formerly an associate head coach for the Illinois State volleyball team.

Chad GLASGOW

Safeties
8th Year at TCU
Oklahoma State, 1995

Chad Glasgow, a member of Gary Patterson's first staff at TCU, is in his seventh season as the Horned Frogs' safeties coach.

In 2006, Glasgow coached Marvin White to first-team All-Mountain West Conference honors. White was also all-league in 2005 along with Jeremy Modkins.

Since arriving at TCU, Glasgow also tutored all-conference safeties Kenneth Hilliard, a free-agent signee with the Buffalo Bills, and Marvin Godbolt, who inked a professional contract in the Canadian Football League.

Glasgow coached safeties, including 2000 Southland Conference Player of the Year C.J. Carroll, at Southwest Texas State from 1998-00.

Prior to his stint at Southwest Texas State, Glasgow spent one year at Illinois State as the linebackers coach. He mentored a pair of all-conference selections during his time in Normal, Ill.

Glasgow also had coaching stops as a graduate assistant at both Oklahoma State (1994-95) under Bob Simmons and New Mexico (1996) with Dennis Franchione. Patterson was the Lobos' defensive coordinator that season.

A three-year letterwinner, Glasgow played linebacker at Oklahoma State. He earned his bachelor's degree from OSU in business administration in 1995.

Clay JENNINGS

Cornerbacks
1st Year at TCU
North Texas, 1996

Clay Jennings joined the TCU football staff as cornerbacks coach in January 2008.

Jennings, who has coached five current NFL defensive backs, came to the Horned Frogs after serving as the cornerbacks coach at Baylor last season.

Prior to serving the 2007 campaign at Baylor, Jennings worked two seasons (2005-06) as safeties coach at Houston. He helped the Cougars to back-to-back bowl appearances and the 2006 Conference USA championship. In 2006, Cougars' free safety Will Gulley earned Conference USA Defensive Player of the Year honors while Brandon Brinkley was named to the league's all-freshman squad.

In his first season at Houston, Jennings saw Rocky Schwartz earn Conference USA third-team all-league honors and Kenneth Fontennette be named an honorable-mention Freshman All-American by The Sporting News.

Prior to his two-year stint at Houston, Jennings spent two seasons (2003-04) as the defensive backs coach at Louisiana-Lafayette, where he helped the Ragin' Cajuns to a No. 11 national ranking in pass defense. At Louisiana-Lafayette, Jennings tutored current NFL players Antwain Spann (New England Patriots), C.C. Brown (Houston Texans) and Michael Adams (Arizona Cardinals).

Jennings also worked two years (2001-02) as secondary coach and recruiting coordinator at Sam Houston State. He helped the Bearkats to a share of the 2001 Southland Conference championship and the quarterfinal round of the NCAA Division I-AA playoffs. At SHSU, Jennings coached All-American and Buck Buchanan Award finalist Keith Davis, who just completed his fifth season with the Dallas Cowboys.

Jennings also coached the secondary at Southern Arkansas (2000), Morningside College in Sioux City, Iowa (1999) and Morehouse College in Atlanta (1998). At SAU, Jennings mentored Jordan Babineaux of the Seattle Seahawks. At Morningside, Jennings coached first-team All-American Matt Walker.

COACHING STAFF

A four-year letterwinner (1992-95) as a defensive lineman and special teams standout at North Texas, Jennings was a member of the Mean Green's 1994 Southland Conference championship team and the school's first NCAA Division I-A squad in 1995. He began his coaching career as a student assistant (1996) and then graduate assistant (1997) at North Texas before moving on to Morehouse.

A 1992 graduate of Waco's La Vega High School and a 1996 North Texas alumnus (bachelor's of science in kinesiology), Jennings and his wife, Belinda, have two children: son Kirby and daughter Kenzie.

Mike SCHULTZ

Offensive Coord./Quarterbacks
11th Year at TCU
Sam Houston State, 1979

The longest tenured full-time assistant coach at TCU, Mike Schultz is in his 10th season directing the Horned Frogs' multiple offense. He serves as both offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach.

Schultz was the running backs coach his first nine years at TCU. With the retirement of quarterbacks coach Dick Winder in February 2007, Schultz took over the quarterbacks with Justin Fuente hired to coach running backs.

Three of the four highest-scoring teams in TCU history have played under Schultz's direction. Including a school-record 410 points in 2000 and the 2005 total of 398 which is the second within TCU.

The 2005 Frogs set a single-season school record with 50 touchdowns. The other top marks for touchdowns also came under Schultz (49, 2000; 48, 2004).

Two of TCU's top-three games in total offense are under Schultz. The Frogs had a school-record 782 yards versus Houston in 2003 and a 694-yard effort at San Diego State this season that ranks third.

Since Schultz's arrival in 1998, the TCU running game has consistently been among the best in the nation. The 2006 team ranked ninth in rushing (194.6 yards per game) and 17th in total offense (408.5 ypg.).

During his time as running backs coach, Schultz made a habit of developing young players at the position.

Prior to Aaron Brown receiving 2005 Mountain West Conference Freshman of the Year honors as a true freshman, Lonta Hobbs and Robert Merrill became the only two freshmen in TCU history to rush for 1,000 yards. The duo completed the feat in consecutive seasons (Hobbs 2002, Merrill 2003).

Schultz has tutored a 1,000-yard rusher in five of his nine campaigns in Fort Worth - with Basil Mitchell, LaDainian Tomlinson (twice), Hobbs and Merrill each earning that distinction. Prior to Schultz's arrival, TCU had boasted just four 1,000-yard rushers in more than 100 years of college football.

Schultz served six seasons at New Mexico, the first four as the assistant head coach and secondary coach and the final two as the assistant head coach and running backs coach.

The Houston native began his coaching career at his alma mater, Sam Houston State, in 1979. Schultz then assisted at UTEP and Kansas State. His next stops were with Fred Akers' staff at Texas for one season (1985) and three years at Round Rock (Texas) Westwood High School as an assistant.

Schultz and his wife, Cindy, have three daughters: Taylor, Kendall and Jordan.

Mike Schultz (left) is the Frogs' longest-serving assistant coach with 11 years at TCU.

Dan SHARP

Tight Ends/Special Teams
8th Year at TCU
TCU, 1985

One of the more popular players to ever don the Purple and White, Dan Sharp is in his eighth year during his second stint as an assistant coach at his alma mater.

A 2005 inductee into the TCU Lettermen's Hall of Fame, Sharp returned to the Horned Frogs' staff in 2001 as the tight ends coach and special teams coordinator. He previously coached for seven seasons at TCU before heading to Tulsa in 1998.

TCU tight ends totaled seven touchdowns on 33 receptions in 2006. Entering the Texas Bowl, tight end Shae Reagan places third on TCU's career list for average yards per catch at 20.8.

Under Sharp's leadership, Matt Schobel was the second pick in the third round of the 2002 National Football League draft and the 67th player selected overall.

In 2004, Cody McCarty garnered first-team all-league honors.

Sharp has coached TCU placekicker and three-time All-Mountain West Conference selection Chris Manfredini to a 45-of-52 mark on field goals the last three seasons. Additionally, punter Derek Wash was an honorable-mention All-MWC choice in 2007. Wash has a 43.2 average which ranks fourth for a single season in TCU history.

Placekicker Nick Browne and punter Joey Biasatti were semifinalists for the Lou Groza and Ray Guy Awards, respectively, during the 2002 campaign. Browne earned All-America honors and was the Conference USA Special Teams Player of the Year in 2003.

COACHING STAFF

TCU's special teams have also produced three consecutive first-team All-MWC return specialists in Brian Bonner (2007, 2006) and Cory Rodgers (2005).

Sharp previously coached at TCU (1991-97) under both Jim Wacker and Pat Sullivan. He mentored the tight ends for five years and handled the defensive ends for two seasons. Before joining the TCU staff on a full-time basis, Sharp served as a graduate assistant under Wacker.

Sharp was a tight end on TCU's 1984 team which finished the regular season with an 8-3 record in earning a trip to the Bluebonnet Bowl. He had a key touchdown reception in a 32-31 win at Arkansas, the Frogs' first victory in Fayetteville in 29 years.

In addition to providing some outstanding blocking for TCU's vaunted running attack, Sharp earned All-Southwest Conference honors in 1984 as he caught 42 passes for 596 yards and seven touchdowns.

Sharp spent two seasons in the NFL with the Atlanta Falcons before returning to his alma mater in 1988.

He received his bachelor's degree in secondary education from TCU in 1985 and his master's degree in liberal arts in 1992.

Sharp and his wife, Cindy, both natives of Boerne, Texas, are the parents of two children: Alexandra and Andrea.

Tony TADEMY

Linebackers
4th Year at TCU
Louisiana Tech, 1983

Tony Tademy is in his third season at TCU after joining the Horned Frog football staff in June 2005.

Tademy has coached at least two All-Mountain West Conference selections in each of his first three years.

Jason Phillips and Robert Henson were both cited for the third consecutive time this season. Phillips was a second-team pick, while Henson was named honorable mention for a third straight year.

In 2006, Phillips was selected first-team All-MWC.

TCU's top three linebackers in 2005, Tademy's first season, featured a pair of redshirt freshmen (Phillips and Henson) and sophomore David Hawthorne. Phillips (second team) became the first freshman defensive player in MWC history to be named first- or second-team all-league. He was also a Freshman All-American. Henson earned honorable mention All-MWC accolades.

Prior to arriving at TCU, Tademy spent two seasons as the defensive coordinator at McKinney (Texas) High School.

Tademy has been in the coaching profession since earning his bachelor's degree in general studies from Louisiana Tech in 1983. While an undergrad, he played linebacker and helped the Bulldogs to a pair of Independence Bowl appearances.

Tademy's first full-time assistant coaching stint came at VMI from 1985 to 1986. He served as the linebackers and defensive line coach, working with current TCU assistant head coach and offensive line coach Eddie Williamson.

Tademy coached the 1987 season at his alma mater, serving as the inside linebackers coach. He later became the offensive line and specialists coach at Howard University in Washington, D.C. He also coached the linebackers and was the recruiting coordinator in his three-year stint at Howard.

After one year as the defensive line coach at Northeast Louisiana University and a short stay at Suitland (Md.) High School, Tademy spent three seasons (1994-96) at the University of Houston where he worked with the defensive ends under coach Kim Helton and helped the Cougars to the 1996 Liberty Bowl.

Tademy returned to the high school ranks as an assistant coach at Texas City (Texas) High School from 1997-98, before taking over as the defensive coordinator at Louisiana-Lafayette from 1999-01. He spent one season as the defensive coordinator at Blinn College before becoming the defensive coordinator at McKinney in 2003.

A Jacksonville, Ark., native, Tademy and his wife, Maria, have two sons: A.J. and Victor.

Eddie
WILLIAMSON

Asst. Head Coach/Offensive Line
8th Year at TCU
Davidson, 1974

A veteran of the collegiate coaching ranks, Eddie Williamson is in his eighth season at TCU as the offensive line coach. He was given the additional title of assistant head coach in 2002.

Williamson has coached eight All-Mountain West Conference selections over the last three seasons. Center Blake Schlueter was a second-team pick this year with tackle Marshall Newhouse an honorable-mention choice.

Tackle Herb Taylor was first-team All-MWC in 2005 and 2006 before the Kansas City Chiefs made him a sixth-round draft pick.

Michael Toudouze, also a tackle, was first-team All-MWC in 2005 and a fifth-round selection of the Indianapolis Colts.

With four new starters on the offensive line last season, TCU allowed just 13 sacks. It was the lowest total in the MWC and tied for the sixth-best mark nationally. In 2005, with three new starters, the Frogs surrendered the league's second-fewest sacks.

With Williamson's troops paving the way, the Frogs have produced a pair of 1,000-yard rushers and a Mountain West Conference Freshman of the Year in the last seven seasons.

Williamson came to Fort Worth from Wake Forest, where he served as the offensive coordinator and offensive line coach. He joined the WFU staff in January 2000, after previously working as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Texas Southern.

Prior to his tenure at Texas Southern, Williamson served as an assistant coach at Baylor, North Carolina, Wake Forest, South Carolina, Georgia, Duke and Furman.

Williamson also has experience as a head coach, serving in that role at VMI from 1985-88.

A part of 15 bowl teams, Williamson's college coaching career began soon after graduating from Davidson College in 1974.

A native of Pendleton, S.C., Williamson was a standout linebacker for three seasons at Davidson (1971-73). He graduated in 1974 and went on to earn his master's degree from Furman in 1976, where he served as a graduate assistant.

Williamson is married to the former Patricia Ogle of High Point, N.C. They have three children: Eddie III, Carrie Beth and Tricia.

BAYLOR	0
No. 22 TCU	17

FORT WORTH, Texas (AP) - Even without standout defensive end Tommy Blake on the field, TCU's dominating defense pitched a season-opening shutout.

The No. 22 Horned Frogs gave up some yards before halftime, but not any points in a 27-0 victory Saturday over Baylor -- the first of three former instate Southwest Conference rivals TCU plays in the opening month of the season.

Andy Dalton threw for 205 yards and a touchdown in his first college start, and Justin Watts and Ryan Christian ran for scores as the Frogs won their ninth straight game. Chris Manfredini kicked two field goals after missing wide right on a 29-yard attempt during the opening drive.

The Frogs had three of their four interceptions and held Baylor to only 78 yards after halftime. Baylor had 204 yards in the first half.

Chase Ortiz, TCU's other All-MWC defensive end, got to quarterback Blake Szymanski and knocked the ball loose on the first play after halftime. The play was initially called a fumble recovered by the Frogs. Even though the play was overturned and made an incomplete pass after being reviewed, the tone was set for the second half.

TCU's last shutout was a 52-0 win at home against San Diego State last November. Baylor was shut out for the first time since 2005, when it was blanked in consecutive games against Texas Tech (28-0) and Texas (62-0).

Linebacker Jason Phillips made a nifty pickoff early in the fourth quarter, reaching back to grab Szymanski's pass thrown behind the intended receiver. Phillips returned it 34 yards to the Baylor 20, setting up Dalton's 14-yard TD pass to Ervin Dickerson that made it 24-0.

Dalton was 18-for-30 passing. But he had an interception and a fumble, losing the ball at the Baylor 1 on a keeper later in the first quarter.

Szymanski won a four-quarterback battle this fall, a competition that included a 25-year-old senior transfer from Kent State and a junior college transfer. He was 23-of-47 passing for 216 yards with three of the interceptions.

Watts (1 yard) and Christian (12 yards) scored in the second quarter to give TCU a 14-0 lead.

Both teams had missed field goals on their first drives. Baylor's Shea Brewster also missed a 35-yard kick in the third quarter.

TCU has won its last five games against Big 12 teams, a streak that started with a season-opening victory at Oklahoma in 2005. But a week after that upset of the Sooners, the Frogs lost to SMU -- the opponent when they play their next home game in three weeks.

No. 19 TCU	13
No. 7 TEXAS	34

AUSTIN, Texas (AP) - Colt McCoy passed for a touchdown, set up another with a long run, and the Texas defense carried the No.7 Longhorns to a 34-13 win over No. 19 TCU.

McCoy, who threw two first-half interceptions, including one that was returned for a touchdown, cut a 10-0 TCU lead in the third quarter with a 33-yard strike to Nate Jones.

The Texas defense did the rest. Brandon Foster returned a fumble by TCU punter Derek Walsh for a TD and the Longhorns held the Horned Frogs to 251 totals yards.

Jones had eight catches for 91 yards and Jamaal Charles tacked on a 39-yard touchdown run in the fourth quarter with just under three minutes left. McCoy finished 25-of-38 for 239 yards. Charles finished with 134 yards, most coming in the second half.

McCoy's shaky start led to TCU's early lead and had the purple-clad Horned Frogs fans sprinkled throughout the stadium thinking they might get the win.

Torrey Stewart faked a blitz, then dropped off and snagged an easy interception. From there, it was a race to the end zone. Linebacker Jason Phillips got a good block on the McCoy, leaving Stewart to run straight toward a large section of TCU fans.

Another interception by David Roach left McCoy holding up his arms as if to ask "What happened?" and set up Chris Manfredini's 19-yard field goal.

Shut out in the first half, Texas got untracked in the third quarter, rolling up nearly 150 yards and keeping the Horned Frogs off the field. TCU didn't have a first down in the second half until midway through the fourth.

On his TD pass, McCoy rolled to his right to avoid the rush, then floated an easy pass to Jones who was dragging across the middle of the end zone.

Texas had tied it 10-10 before McCoy's long run set up the go-ahead score. Dropping back to pass, he saw the middle come open and took off running to the TCU 1. Vondrell McGee punched in the TD two plays later.

TCU got within 27-13 on Manfredini's second field goal late in the fourth, but Texas recovered the onside kick. On 3rd-and-6, Charles burst up the middle for the final score.

AIR FORCE	20 ot

USAFA, Colo. (AP) - Ryan Harrison's 33-yard field goal on second down gave Air Force a 20-17 overtime victory over TCU.

Harrison's winner followed a miss by TCU's Chris Manfredini, whose 36-yard attempt hit the left upright on the first possession of overtime. The Falcons had tied it on Jim Ollis' 71-yard TD run on an option pitch from Shaun Carney with 5:55 left.

Twice in the third quarter, the Horned Frogs were turned away near the goal line, on a blocked field goal and an interception.

Finally, Dalton hit Walter Bryant in the back of the end zone for an 11-yard score one play after the Frogs got a first down by the nose of the football, to make it 17-3 with 13:10 left.

But Carney responded by hitting Travis Dekker for 50 yards, setting up a 9-yard touchdown strike to Keith Madsen that pulled the Falcons within a touchdown with 8 minutes remaining.

The Falcons gave up great field position to TCU when Horned Frogs up-man Derek Moore recovered the onside kick, but Air Force forced a three-and-out and took over at its 20.

On fourth-and-1 from the Falcons 29, Carney pitched to Ollis, who scampered 71 yards for the tying touchdown with 5:55 left.

TCU capitalized on a blocked punt and an interception to take a 10-3 halftime lead despite an offense without tailback Aaron Brown, who missed his second straight game with a knee injury. Stephen Hodges sliced through the Falcons' widespread punt formation to block Harrison's first punt, and Andy Burrell recovered at the Air Force 27. But the Frogs managed to move just five yards and had to settle for Manfredini's 39-yard field goal.

Manfredini's 20-yarder in the third quarter was blocked by Chris Thomas, the 100th blocked kick by Air Force since 1990.

After Steven Coleman's interception at midfield, TCU again had trouble moving the ball. The Frogs committed three penalties and a fumble but still managed to drive downfield for the touchdown on Dalton's 5-yard fade pass to Ervin Dickerson just before he tumbled out of bounds.

After Harrison was wide right on a 50-yard field goal try that was plenty long enough, the Horned Frogs drove to the Falcons 22 before Garrett Rybak forced and recovered a fumble by Christian at the end of an 11-yard scamper.

Harrison then nailed a career-long 57-yarder with 1:31 left before halftime, which was nothing like the thrilling 33-yarder he would hit in overtime.

FORT WORTH, Texas (AP) - TCU scored on a blocked punt and an interception return, then held on through a scoreless second half to beat SMU 21-7.

The victory avenged TCU's only loss of the 2005 season in the first meeting of the crosstown rivals since then.

Both teams squandered multiple scoring opportunities. TCU lost two fumbles inside the SMU 20-yard line, and the Mustangs were 0-for-3 on fourth down inside the TCU 25.

The Horned Frogs had as many touchdowns and first downs - two - in the first 20 minutes of the game. They led 14-7 thanks to touchdowns off a blocked punt and an interception.

Colin Jones blocked Thomas Morstead's punt, and Bart Johnson picked it up and took it 17 yards into end zone for a 7-7 tie with 4:14 left in the first quarter. Robert Henson scored on a 43-yard interception return with 11:47 remaining in the first half.

Backup quarterback Marcus Jackson replaced starter Andy Dalton for a series in the first half and led TCU on a 16-play, 78-yard drive that ended with a 15-yard touchdown pass to Derek Moore.

Jackson and Dalton spent the rest of the game rotating at quarterback, with Jackson completing six of 12 passes for 68 yards and Dalton five of 14 attempts for 40 yards.

SMU quarterback Justin Willis was 19-of-31 for 203 yards, and the Mustangs held a 12-minute advantage in time of possession.

TCU, which was ranked as high as No. 19, snapped a two-game losing streak. SMU lost its 16th consecutive nonconference road game.

DeMyron Martin scored on a 15-yard run for SMU in the first quarter. He finished with 100 yards on 19 carries.

FORT WORTH, Texas (AP) - Backup quarterback Marcus Jackson rushed for two touchdowns and threw for another to lead TCU past Colorado State 24-12 Saturday night.

Starter Andy Dalton suffered an injury on TCU's opening drive. Jackson had a 4-yard touchdown run on his first play of the game.

Jackson was 11-for-26 passing for 137 yards and carried 17 times for 38 yards.

TCU (3-2, 1-1 Mountain West) played without defensive end Tommy Blake, who was placed on medical leave Tuesday for undisclosed reasons. Blake, who came into the season as a top NFL prospect, will miss at least one more game.

TCU's Aaron Brown, who has been slowed this season with a knee injury, rushed for 124 yards on 22 carries. It was his fifth career 100-yard rushing game.

Colorado State (0-4, 0-1) scored on its first possession when Jason Smith booted a 47-yard field goal.

Jackson was 0-for-3 passing in the first quarter, but heated up in the second.

On TCU's season-best 90-yard drive, Jackson completed four passes for 73 yards. He connected with Shae Reagan on a 4-yard pass to put the Horned Frogs ahead 14-3.

Chris Manfredini's 19-yard field goal gave the Frogs a 17-3 halftime lead.

In the third quarter, TCU scored again when Jackson rolled out to his left for his second 4-yard touchdown run.

Colorado State finished the scoring on Smith's 27-yard field goal and Caleb Hanie's 54-yard touchdown pass to Damon Morton. The two-point conversion failed, leaving the score at 24-12 a minute into the fourth quarter.

LARAMIE, Wyo. (AP) - Hoost Marsh caught two touchdowns while Devin Moore and Wynel Seldon combined for 235 yards rushing as Wyoming beat TCU 24-21 on Saturday.

The Horned Frogs scored back-to-back touchdowns in the fourth quarter, but that wasn't enough to cross an 18-point gap Wyoming (3-1, 1-0) created on two touchdowns and a field goal earlier in the half.

TCU place-kicker Chris Manfredini had a chance to tie the game with a 48-yard field goal attempt as time expired, but the kick bounced off the right upright.

Marsh was wide open in the third quarter for an 8-yard catch and a score of 14-6, ending a 47-yard drive that began when Cowboys cornerback Michael Medina picked off Andy Dalton.

On the Cowboys' next possession, three pass interference calls against TCU helped move Wyoming to the Frogs' 2-yard line. Seldon ran in for a 21-6 Cowboys lead.

Billy Vinnedge kicked a 23-yard field goal for a 24-6 Cowboys lead in the fourth quarter, but TCU fought back, scoring the final 15 points.

Dalton connected with Ervin Dickerson for a 27-yard play and the Frogs' first touchdown of the game. Dalton then threw to Donald Massey for a 2-point conversion and a score of 24-14.

On TCU's next possession, Bart Johnson caught a 5-yard pass for the final score on his first career reception.

Marsh's first touchdown, a 65-yard reception, put Wyoming ahead 7-3 in the first quarter.

TCU came within 7-6 on a 32-yard Manfredini field goal at the end of the first half. Manfredini also kicked a 51-yarder, a career best, on the Frogs' first possession.

STANFORD, Calif. (AP) - Aaron Brown scored on a short run with 4:13 remaining to complete a 14-point comeback, and Robert Henson batted away Tavita Pritchard's fourth-down pass to preserve TCU's 38-36 victory over Stanford.

A week after slowing down USC's offense and pulling off one of the signature upsets in college football history, the Cardinal could not solve the TCU passing attack.

Andy Dalton threw for 344 yards and two touchdowns as TCU ended a two-game slide. Brown rushed for 91 yards and caught five passes for 45 yards and a touchdown, and Jimmy Young caught three passes for 110 yards.

The teams traded scores through most of the first three quarters, with Anthony Kimble's 15-yard touchdown early in the second half putting the Cardinal ahead 28-17.

Stanford extended its lead when Derek Belch kicked a 37-yard field goal with 3:54 left in the third quarter following a drive that lasted more than six minutes.

It took the Frogs two plays and 37 seconds to draw within 31-24. Dalton hooked up with Young over the middle, who outran the Cardinal defense for a 70-yard touchdown.

Stanford then went three-and-out and the Frogs went 60 yards in nine plays, and a 2-yard pass from Dalton to Brown on fourth down tied it with 9:44 left.

Belch's second field goal, this time from 40 yards, put Stanford ahead 34-31 with 7:22 remaining.

Dalton's 31-yard pass to Donald Massey set up Brown's go-ahead touchdown.

Stanford took a 21-17 lead into halftime as Pritchard threw touchdown passes of 5 yards to Evan Moore and 40 yards to Richard Sherman. Kimble followed with a rushing touchdown.

The Frogs scored a pair of rushing touchdowns in the first half on Dalton's 6-yard run and Joseph Turner's 17-yard dash. Chris Manfredini added a 25-yard field goal just before the break.

UTAH	27
TCU	20

FORT WORTH, Texas (AP) - Darrell Mack pounded his way for 100 yards rushing with a touchdown and Utah won its fourth straight game since starting quarterback Brian Johnson returned from injury, beating TCU 27-20.

Johnson, who missed three games after separating his shoulder in the season opener, completed 13 of 20 passes for 120 yards and a touchdown. Mack and Johnson accounted for all but seven of Utah's 227 total yards.

Chris Manfredini kicked a 41-yard field goal for TCU with 2:07 left and the Frogs thought they had the ball back when David Hawthorne recovered an onside kick. But officials ruled Hawthorne touched the ball before it went 10 yards, and confirmed that after a lengthy replay review.

TCU's Andy Dalton was 20-of-45 for 159 yards with four interceptions. He had been picked off only four times the first six games and was coming off a 344-yard game in a win at Stanford.

Martail Burnett, Utah's 262-pound senior defensive end, returned one of the interceptions 55 yards for a touchdown with 54 seconds left in the first half. It put Utah ahead 24-14.

Louie Sakoda's 41-yard field goal midway through the fourth quarter was Utah's only score after halftime.

Mack's 1-yard TD run capped an game-opening 58-yard drive, and Sakoda kicked a 31-yard field goal after Dalton's first interception.

The Horned Frogs used special teams and a trick play early in the second quarter to erase a 10-0 deficit. Daryl Washington blocked his third punt of the season, deflecting Sakoda's kick straight up into the air. The ball bounced into the hands of Stephen Hodge, who returned it 31 yards for a touchdown. Utah then went three-and-out, and Brian Bonner had a 30-yard punt return.

After Dalton handed off to Jeremy Kerley sweeping right, it was a throwback to Dalton, who gained 27 yards to the 1. That set up Marcus Brock's TD run that put TCU up 14-10.

Utah went ahead to stay at 17-14 when Johnson threw a 24-yard TD to Marquis Wilson with 3:20 left in the first half.

Manfredini, who later missed a 22-yarder, made a 37-yard field goal on the final play of the first half to get the Frogs to 24-17. His kick hit the left upright and barely cleared the crossbar when it dropped straight down.

FORT WORTH, Texas (AP) - Andy Dalton threw for two touchdowns and TCU held New Mexico to 28 rushing yards in a 37-0 victory Saturday.

Dalton connected with Derek Moore for a 29-yard touchdown in the second quarter and with Ervin Dickerson for a 1-yard score in the fourth.

The Horned Frogs (5-4, 2-3 Mountain West) also scored on a 7-yard pass from Marcus Jackson, who shared time at quarterback with Dalton, to Marcus Brock during a 17-point second quarter.

Chris Manfredini kicked field goals of 28, 25, and 17 yards to help TCU end a three-game winning streak by New Mexico (6-3, 3-2).

TCU hounded Lobos quarterback Donovan Porterie and held running back Rodney Ferguson to 13 carries for 28 yards, 81 below his season average. Porterie was 7-for-23 passing for 76 yards and was sacked twice.

Even completed passes turned disastrous for New Mexico. Travis Brown fumbled after a catch, and Frogs cornerback Rafael Priest returned it 13 yards for a touchdown in the third quarter.

Joseph Turner led TCU's balanced offense with a career-high 115 yards on 28 carries. The Frogs had 421 total yards -- 238 rushing and 183 passing -- while holding the Lobos to 119.

The rushing yards and total offense were New Mexico's lowest since a 55-14 loss to Oregon State in the 2003 Las Vegas Bowl. The Lobos hadn't been shut out since 2002 against Texas Tech.

New Mexico has lost all three games against TCU in the Mountain West. Each time, the Frogs have led at least 24-0, although the Lobos came back to make things interesting the past two years.

PROVO, Utah (AP) - Max Hall passed for 305 yards and a touchdown and Brigham Young's defense came up with two sacks in an 11-second span to seal a 27-22 victory over TCU.

The Horned Frogs made BYU fans sweat a little during the crisp fall night with a 94-yard scoring drive that cut the lead to 27-22 with 3:49 remaining. The Frogs kicked off and the defense held, forcing BYU to punt after a tipped pass was overturned on review and had the ball at its own 32 with 2:39 left in the game.

But David Nixon sacked Andy Dalton on second down, then on fourth-and-8, Bryan Kehl pounced on Dalton as he lost his footing with 1:58 left. The Cougars ran out the clock and won for the 10th straight time at home.

Harvey Unga ran for two touchdowns and Austin Collie had four catches for 109 yards for the Cougars. Chris Manfredini kicked three field goals for TCU and Dalton was 18-of-30 for 165 yards and a touchdown.

Dalton's 7-yard touchdown pass to Bart Johnson with 3:49 remaining got the Frogs within a touchdown and gave TCU a chance to win it after the defense stopped the Cougars.

On the first series of the second half, Dalton threw a pass right to BYU linebacker Kelly Poppinga, who returned it 22 yards to the 3. Unga scored on the next play to put BYU up 24-9 with 13:58 left in the third quarter.

Marcus Brock scored on a 1-yard run that cut the lead to 24-15 after the 2-point conversion failed.

BYU's defense came up with another key stop when TCU went for it on fourth-and-1 at the BYU 32 and Aaron Brown got knocked back a yard. The Cougars got the ball back and drove to the 11 for Mitch Payne's 29-yard field goal, which put BYU ahead 27-15 with 13:06 left.

FORT WORTH, Texas (AP) - Andy Dalton rushed for two touchdowns and directed TCU to another first-half score in a 34-10 win over UNLV.

The Horned Frogs earned bowl eligibility after scoring touchdowns on their first four possession. Dalton ran for a career-high 73 yards, scoring on a pair of 3-yard runs.

TCU's ground attack, which averages about 140 yards per game, amassed 251 yards, 181 in the first half. Besides Dalton, Aaron Brown and Joseph Turner had rushing touchdowns.

Trailing 28-0, UNLV cut into the TCU lead just before halftime when Travis Dixon threw a 32-yard touchdown pass to Frank Summers. The Rebels added a field goal in the third quarter.

Brown, TCU's leading rusher, injured his left ankle late in the third quarter and left the field on crutches.

UNLV lost its seventh straight game and its 14th straight conference road game. TCU has outscored the Rebels 110-23 in the past three meetings.

TCU	45
SAN DIEGO STATE	33

SAN DIEGO (AP) - Joseph Turner ran for a career-high 226 yards and four touchdowns to lead TCU to a 45-33 win over San Diego State on Saturday night.

Turner helped the Horned Frogs overcome San Diego State's 17-0 first quarter lead. He scored his first touchdown on a 5-yard run late in the second quarter to give TCU its first lead of the game at 21-17.

Turner then added TD runs of 9, 14 and 41 yards in the third quarter as the Horned Frogs took a 42-27 lead.

TCU's offense ran up 694 yards in total offense on 111 plays and made 39 first downs, the most ever allowed by San Diego State. The Horned Frogs also held the ball for 39 minutes, 19 seconds compared to only 20:41 for the Aztecs.

Andy Dalton, who scored on a 14-yard run, completed 23 of 39 passes for 298 yards for TCU.

The Aztecs, who gained 441 yards in total offense, took a 17-0 lead in the first quarter, 14 of those points coming after TCU turnovers.

Kevin O'Connell threw a 97-yard touchdown pass to Chaz Schilens after Dalton's fumbled snap at the 1-yard line. It was the longest pass play in San Diego State history and the longest play ever allowed by TCU. Following another turnover, Davon Brown scored on a 3-yard run for a 17-0 lead at the 5:43 mark.

O'Connell, who had a 12-yard touchdown run late in the game, also threw a 6-yard TD pass to Brett Swain with 34 seconds left to take a 24-21 halftime lead. O'Connell completed 26 of 51 passes for 366 yards.

TCU EDGES COUGARS IN TEXAS BOWL

Watts scores go-ahead touchdown

HOUSTON (AP) - Justin Watts had scored exactly one touchdown in his career at TCU before the Texas Bowl.

TD No. 2 for Watts helped the Horned Frogs end the season with a bowl victory for the third straight season, something they haven't done in almost 70 years.

The backup running back scored the go-ahead touchdown early in the fourth quarter to help TCU to a 20-13 win over Houston on Friday night in the Texas Bowl.

The junior wove through the defense and danced into the end zone for an 8-yard touchdown run that made it 17-10 and gave TCU (8-5) its first lead of the game against its old Southwest Conference rival.

He and Ryan Christian split carries against Houston (8-5) after starter Joseph Turner injured his knee in the first quarter and didn't return.

Quarterback Andy Dalton also ran for a touchdown for TCU. It was 1936-39 when the Horned Frogs last had a run of bowl victories as long as this one. They started their current bowl winning streak with a win over Iowa State in this bowl in 2005 when it was known as the Houston Bowl.

Dalton was 21-of-30 for 249 yards with one interception. Watts and Christian combined for 88 yards rushing on 12 carries.

A 15-yard leaping reception by Jimmy Young on third down kept the drive that ended in Watts' touchdown going. Young outjumped Carson Blackmon to grab the ball and managed to keep his left leg in bounds as he landed.

It was initially ruled an incomplete pass, but the call was overturned after a review by officials.

The Cougars had a chance to tie it with less than 30 seconds to play but Case Keenum's pass sailed just beyond the fingertips of Jeron Harvey in the end zone. He had two more shots at the end zone, but the ball fell short on the first one and Chase Ortiz hit him as he threw the second one to end the game.

Keenum was hurried and harassed by TCU most of the night and was sacked five times. He was 23-of-38 for 335 yards. Donnie Avery had 10 receptions for 120 yards.

The Cougars extended their bowl losing streak to eight games. Their last bowl win came in the 1980 Garden State Bowl.

The Horned Frogs got to the Houston 2 later in the fourth quarter, but had to settle for a 35-yard field goal after a holding penalty followed by a 6-yard loss by Christian on third down.

Houston made it 20-13 with a 32-yard field goal by T.J. Lawrence with 1:57 remaining. Houston had a first down from the TCU 14, but Keenum was sacked by Ortiz for a 5-yard loss on third down to bring out Lawrence.

The Cougars tried an onside kick after the field goal, but TCU's Brian Bonner recovered the ball.

Houston attempted a 48-yard field goal midway through the fourth quarter but it sailed wide right.

TCU's Chris Manfredini hit a 29-yard field goal with 6:30 remaining in the third quarter to tie the game at 10-all.

The Horned Frogs shut down Houston's star running back Anthony Alridge. He entered the game with 1,568 yards rushing for the season and managed just 28 yards on 15 carries Friday.

A 39-yard field goal by T.J. Lawrence 10 seconds before halftime put UH ahead 10-7.

TCU's Dalton capped an 11-play, 75-yard drive with a 3-yard touchdown run early in the second quarter that tied the game at 7-all.

Dalton, who grew up in the Houston suburb of Katy, was the game's most valuable player.

Dalton broke TCU's single-season record for completions with 208 when he found Shae Reagan for a 9-yard reception later in the second quarter. The previous mark of 207 was set by Max Knake in 1993.

Andre Kohn's 67-yard catch and run near the end of the first quarter put Houston ahead 7-0.
